Location: Java Dog Training Center, 2601 Spring St., Redwood City

What is APDT Rally?

APDT Rally is similar to AKC Rally with a few exciting differences! Like AKC Rally, it combines basic and more advanced obedience skills, heeling, an obstacle course and jumps to make it a very fun and interesting sport. It emphasizes communication, teamwork and fun for the dog/handler team while providing an interactive approach to obedience. In addition to praise and encouragement, treats and petting and are permitted in APDT Rally. It also includes more challenging exercises at the upper levels (such as directed jumping, distance work, drop on recall and retrieves) and many more titling opportunities.

Who can do APDT Rally?

Anybody!

APDT Rally is intended to promote positive relationships between dogs and owners that are based on trust and mutual respect. The goal is for both dog and handler to have an enjoyable time in the ring. Dogs of all ages, breeds (including mixes), and abilities/disabilities can compete in APDT Rally. Both new and experienced Rally competitors will find this sport fun and challenging.
